

Electronic ISSN: Applied

Print ISSN: Applied

Periodicity: Bi-Annual

Rayat Bahra International Journal of Multidisciplinary Research

(RBIJMR)

Rayat Bahra International Journal of Multidisciplinary Research (RBIJMR) is published by leading Academic organization Rayat Bahra University, Mohali, Punjab, India. The journal aims to provide an excellent forum for the multidiscipline to come together for the sustained advancement and to promote the research work in important fundamental fields with new prospects. The journal RBIJMR provides its diverse coverage of major advances in multidisciplinary developments. The current journal is double blind peer-reviewed journal that intend to publish the original Research work, Review articles, Case study, Thematic issues from diverse areas such as Science, Engineering, Technology, Education, Medicine, Social issues & other interdisciplinary fields.

The journal presents topical areas together within the context of current trends in research and applications in the various fields enclosed. The journal offers knowledge and facts about the current rapid development in scientific and social issues through valuable analytics that help our scientific community, young minds make breakthrough and drive societal progress.

Types of Research Communication:

1. Original Research Papers
2. Review Articles
3. Short Communications
4. Case Study
5. Thematic Issues

Journal Sections For Research Publication:

Research papers are published under various sections considering the multidisciplinary nature of the Journal.

Sr. No.	Sections
1.	Engineering Technology & Multi Media Communication
2.	Sciences and Pharmaceutical Sciences
3.	Medical and Health Care Sciences
4.	Management and Legal Studies
5.	Social Sciences and Education